

SERIES: WHAT HAPPY COUPLES KNOW

Episode 2: "It's Mutual"

In every marriage both people have hopes, dreams, and desires for the relationship. But how do we keep them from turning into expectations for each other to fulfill?

	QUESTIONS	NOTES
01 >>>>	How would you describe the happiest couple you know?
02 >>>>	What do you think creating a great romantic relationship requires of each person?
03 >>>>	Have you ever been in a relationship in which the other person felt you owed them something? If so, what happened to that relationship?
04	Andy mentioned that great marriages aren't built on a division of labor; they are a submission competition. How does that statement challenge your assumptions about marriage?
05 >>>>	How would you treat your partner differently if you were convinced they owed you nothing?

BOTTOM LINE

Happy couples know that putting each other first means choosing to be last.
