WITH ANDY STANLEY

SERIES: INVESTIGATING JESUS

Episode 4: “Redefining Terms”

There are people who will go out of their way to help someone and expect nothing in return. We like those people and we want to be like them; Jesus extends an invitation that shows us how to be those people.

QUESTIONS

- 01  Describe a time when someone went out of their way to help you. What did that communicate to you and how did it make you feel?

- 02  How have the people in your life demonstrated love to you over the years? How have you demonstrated love to them?

- 03  What is your initial reaction to the idea that Jesus changed the definition of “neighbor” to everyone in every generation in every nation?

- 04  What is one way you can demonstrate love to someone you encounter today? What needs do you see that need to be met?

BOTTOM LINE

Through one simple action—loving your neighbor as yourself—Jesus invites us to be the kind of people who are virtually impossible to resist.
