

PARENTING IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Most parents want what's best for their children, but sometimes it comes at the expense of their children. So what's the secret to great parenting?

	QUESTIONS	NOTES
01 >>>	When you think back to childhood, were your parents pushy, patient, or something in between? Explain.
02 >>>>	What are your strengths as a parent?
03 >>>>	Have you ever made a parenting decision you now regret? If yes, explain.
04 >>>>	If your child were asked, how important would they say your reputation is to you?
05	As a parent, when is patience most difficult?
06 >>>>	What kind of relationship do you hope to have with your child or children in 10 years? Do you feel you are on track or are there changes you need to make?

BOTTOM LINE

When parenting, opt for patient over pushy.

Learn something new? Have any epiphanies? Tweet your story and tag us @YourMove.