

SERIES: IS CHRISTIANITY GOOD?

Episode 2: "What Happened?"

First-century Jesus followers were convinced the message of Christianity was good news of great joy for all people. So why has it become it so easy to walk away from?

NOTES

QUESTIONS

- 01 What do you think are the main reasons Christianity has become so easy to walk away from?
- Religious arguments about
  "correct belief" can often get in the way of treating other people well. How should Christians
   "personify the good news"?
- What does humility mean to you? What does it require of you?
- O4 Andy offered Christians the inversion four suggestions to live out their faith:
  - 1. Apologize immediately.
  - 2. Forgive quickly.
  - 3. Defer habitually.
  - 4. Give sacrificially.

Which of the above do you find most challenging? Why?

BOTTOM LINE

Christianity isn't primarily about what you believe. It's about how you treat other people.

Learn something new? Have any epiphanies? Tweet your story and tag us @YourMove.