

SKIN IN THE GAME

Growth and healing almost always start with a conversation. When we find ourselves in difficult situations regarding race and racism, how do we know where to begin?

	QUESTIONS	NOTES
01 >>>>	Many of us have encountered or witnessed racism. Share your experience.
02 >>>>	Joseph said, "from a distance, it's easy to make assumptions that are convenient." Do you agree? Why or why not?
03 >>>>	Spending time with someone from a different race can reveal the unique challenges they face. Have you experienced this before? Discuss with the group.
04 >>>>	How could asking yourself, "What does love require of me?" change the way you approach complicated racial situations?
05 >>>>	Where does change start? What's a practical way you can contribute?

"Men hate each other because they fear each other. They fear each other because they don't know each other, and they don't know each other because they don't communicate with each other..." - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
