

SERIES: LEADING THROUGH

Episode 4: "Leading with Empathy"

During times of uncertainty and disruption, the people around us need to know we care.

How do we lead with empathy and compassion?

	QUESTIONS	NOTES
01 >>>	Can you think of a time when you were shown compassion by a leader? What happened? Did it change how you viewed them?	:
02 *	"When I'm convinced you know how I feel, I will be far more open to your influence." How comfortable are you with "displaying your humanity"?
03	When considering ways to support those you lead, have you ever thought, Since I can't do it for everyone, I shouldn't do it for anyone? What are the pros and cons of engaging, even when it can be viewed as unfair?
04	Who looks to you for reassurance? How can you ensure they see your humanity and vulnerability? Explain.

BOTTOM LINE

Those you lead need to know you care.
