

YOUR MOVE

WITH ANDY STANLEY

SERIES: WHEN RELIGION MEETS POLITICS

Episode 3: "Unity in Diversity"

The unity and diversity of first-century Jesus followers shocked and intrigued the ancient world. How can modern-day Christians follow their lead?

QUESTIONS

- 01  Why do you think it's so easy to make character judgments based on how other people lean politically?
- 02  Can you think of a time when you came to understand someone who is very different than you? What did it require of you?
- 03  Should churches engage in political dialogues? Why or why not?
- 04  What would our communities or world be like if we all decided to listen and learn from one another?
- 05  What changes, if any, do you want to make to approach political conversations differently?

NOTES

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

BOTTOM LINE

When we choose to carry someone's burden, what divides us diminishes and what unites us surfaces.

Learn something new? Have any epiphanies? Tweet your story and tag us @YourMove.