

SERIES: WHO NEEDS GOD

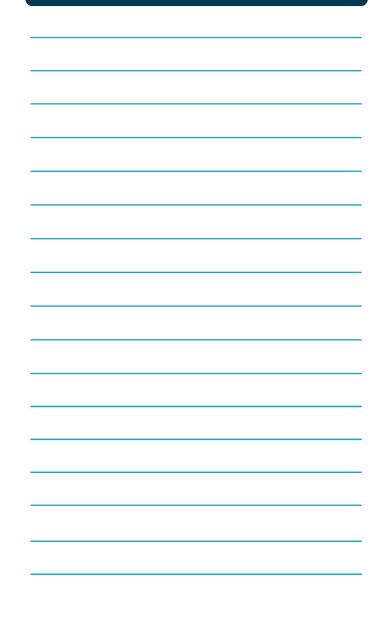

Episode 5: "Injustice for All"

We all want to rid the world of injustice. But who gets to define what's just?

QUESTIONS

- O1 Has injustice in the world influencedWhat way you see God? Why or why not?
- Do you believe there is an objective standard of "dignity and justice for all"? If so, where do you believe it came from? Do you think it varies from one culture or society to the next?
- O3 During the message, Andy said,
 When we reject God because of injustice, we don't solve injustice. We lose the definition." Do you agree with that statement? Why or why not?
- O4 Is it easier to regard pain and w suffering in the world as an argument against the existence of God or as a reminder of our need for God?
 Explain.
 - Does it make sense why God provided a way to save humanity from its shortcomings instead of choosing to judge humanity for them? Why or why not?

NOTES

BOTTOM LINE

When we reject God because of injustice in the world, we don't solve injustice. We lose the definition.

Discover something new? Have any epiphanies? Tweet your story and tag us @YourMove.